

Subject: rules for lock codes

Classification: confidential

Please note that the new directive issued by the security office has outlined the rules for choosing the unlocking codes for electronic locks. In particular, the following characteristics must be respected:

- the pin must be at least 6 digits long
- no digit can be repeated more than 2 times